

The Five Capitals

Key Concepts

FIVECAPITALS

PERSPECTIVE

Jesus wasn't just a simple carpenter — He was a Builder — He has built the most successful enterprise the world has ever seen. He knows how to build your life and your business better than you do. If you'll let Him, He'll build (through you) a life that's integrated, fruitful and fulfilling.

PRIORITIES

Based on Matthew 25 and Luke 16: Here's an overview of the Five Capitals:

- Spiritual Capital is based on the relationship we have with God. It's the most valuable valuable of all the capitals. It's measured in wisdom and power.
- Relational Capital is the relational equity (or trust) we've built-up (or eroded) with others It's both the quality and depth of our relationships. It's measured in influence and impact.
- Physical Capital is the time and energy we have available to invest. Time is the great equalizer. We have one life to make the most of. It's measured in hours and minutes.
- Intellectual Capital is the creativity and knowledge we have available to invest. The skills and competences we learn allow us to thrive in life. It's measured in creativity and insight.
- Financial Capital is simply the money-tangible resources we have available to invest. It's about stewarding well all the resources we have. It's measured in dollars and cents.

POTENTIAL

Realizing our potential is about growing our Spiritual Capital — becoming a Wise Builder through Hearing and Doing.

(Matthew 7:24)

	Hearing (humility)
"Limited Good" Forgetful	"Unlimited Good" Fruitfulness
"No Good" Frustrated	"Unlimited Harm" Fumbling	Doing (courage)